Honorable Thomas B. Curtis
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Curtis:

Thank you for your letter of 16 January 1961 concerning [redacted] who is interested in entering Government service.

We are enclosing a brochure which describes our general employment requirements and opportunities and would be glad for you to forward it to [redacted] with our application forms which are also enclosed.

I am always glad to know about people who are interested in joining our organization and very much appreciate your bringing [redacted] to my attention. We shall advise you of the outcome of his application if he should decide to explore the possibilities further.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
Director
